The Mayor's YOUTH Summer Service Challenge

Fun, Safe Philly Summer with SERVE Philadelphia

Mayor Michael A. Nutter is challenging young Philadelphians, ages 13 – 18, to participate in at least three summer service activities from June 1, 2012 to July 27, 2012. Will you meet this challenge?

Young people who participate in at least three service activities and complete a minimum of TEN service hours will be entered into the Mayor's YOUTH Summer Service Challenge Raffle. Raffle prizes include tickets to the following - Philadelphia Phillies games, WWE Wrestling, American Idol Concert, Eagles Pre-Season games, the Philadelphia Zoo - and MORE!! A grand prize winner will win two Powerhouse tickets and lunch with the Mayor in his office.

To be eligible, young people must fill out the reverse side of this form and return it to any local branch of the Free Library of Philadelphia no later than July 27th. Note to young people – your service forms must include the name, signature and contact number of your parent/guardian and all of your service project supervisors. You must complete a minimum of ten hours of volunteer service and participate in at least three projects. You are welcome to participate in more than three projects to complete the required hours.
